

REQUEST FOR WATER PROCESS PRELIMINARY INTEREST FORM

Thank you for considering participation in the Colorado Water Trust and Colorado Water Conservation Board (CWCB) Request for Water Process. Submission of this Preliminary Interest Form will initiate a free, confidential review of your water right(s) by Colorado Water Trust staff to determine opportunities to use your water for instream flows or flow restoration purposes. Submission of this form will NOT commit you to pursuing a transaction with the Colorado Water Trust or CWCB, and does NOT constitute a formal offer under CWCB's ISF Rule 6. The Water Trust will not discuss your water rights with any person or entity without your permission.

If the Water Trust staff identifies potential flow restoration opportunities, staff will discuss those opportunities with you and request your approval to consult with other entities, including the CWCB, and to conduct additional technical analyses. In many cases, flow restoration use will require partnership with the Colorado Water Conservation Board, the state agency tasked with administering the state's Instream Flow Program. If you are interested in offering multiple water rights, please submit a copy of Part 3 for each additional water right.

If you have any questions, please contact Blake Mamich or Tony LaGreca with the Colorado Water Trust at either 720-570-2897 or RFW@coloradowatertrust.org, or consult the "Frequently Asked Questions," available at <http://coloradowatertrust.org/programs/request-for-water>

Please submit your preliminary offer(s) to:
